Portage Oct. 8th 1891

Dear John

It seems a long time since I have had a letter from you, letting us know how you all are

I repeat you are so engaged in matters of importance, and time is precious

When I mail this letter, I will also mail the book called, A Guide to Dunbar that Mr Combe sent to me

Relatives
Portage

Some time ago I sent the Book to Lincoln and Dan has had the picture of the Town Photographed and enlarged so that I can see the dear old Town quite plainly

There are the Old Kirk in the Cemetery where so many of my family and friends are laid to rest - How could I ever forget Dunbar?

There are also a Cemetery in Kansas City
not to be forgotten

I hope your family and John Reids are all enjoying good health

We are all in our usual health here

Joanna has been in the Country a good part of the Summer but we expect her home this week

I send love to all the Friends not forgetting
Mrs Strutzel

Affectionately
Mother
